In- and Out-of-State Domestic Farm Winery Privilege Breakdown

(Authorized by A.R.S. §4-205.04)

(Updated 10/8/2018)

The privileges allowed to in- and out-of-state Domestic Farm Wineries licensed in Arizona are based on the quantity of wine produced in a calendar year as follows:

200 to 40,000 Gallons Per Year

May:

- sell & deliver their own wine to wholesalers
- serve wine produced on premises for sampling
- sell wine produced on premises in original container to consumers physically present for on- or off-sale consumption
- Stack a restaurant (series 12) if no producers license is held at another location by the same owner and the liquor purchased by these licenses comes through an AZ licensed wholesaler, and
 - may purchase wine from other DFW
 - deliver other DFW wine to their own retail
- Sell & deliver for sampling and on- & off-premises sales at a wine fair/festival 25 times per year per DFW (authorized by A.R.S. §4-203.03)
- Sell and make deliveries through licensed wholesales (authorized by A.R.S. §4-504.C.1)

Take orders from an AZ resident age 21 + by phone, mail, catalogue, internet for personal use if:

- order is delivered to an AZ licensed wholesaler who pays all taxes and delivers order to AZ licensed retailer w/off-sale privileges (authorized by A.R.S. §4-203.04)

- Ship to business or individual if:
 - not licensed, are age 21 +, order was given while physically present at DFW, is for personal use, less than 2 cases, and could carry it into the state of delivery (authorized by A.R.S. §4-203.04)
- Serve on an AZ licensed off-sale retail location for sampling purposes. The retailer where sampling takes place may sell the DFW product for off-sale consumption (authorized by A.R.S. §4-244.04)
