To Whom It May Concern,

A.R.S. §4-244.02(B) allows for the importation of spirituous liquor by military personnel returning from a foreign country if the following statements are true.

- The person importing the liquor is age 21 or older.
- The spirituous liquor is for personal use (not sold for commercial purposes).
- The person importing the liquor has been physically within the foreign country immediately prior to importation, and the importation coincides with his / her return from a tour of duty.
- If there is any duty assessed, it has been paid.
- The importation of spirituous liquor complies with federal statutes.

Yours sincerely,

Ben Henry
Director
